“This really pulled a lot together for me and has been hugely valuable – I know parts of this are going to impact my approach to my work on my first day back.”
– Merewyn Boak, Apple

“The course went immediately into real-world, useful vulnerabilities, and how to remediate them. The teachers are clear in presenting materials and expanding on the concepts in an appropriate amount. They take real-time questions and incorporate them into the discussion appropriately.”
– Joshua Briggs, Dell Technologies

“SANS Live Online delivers a great instructor/moderator team paired with technology that allows us to participate in this high-speed training remotely. It fosters interaction and participation, and is easy to follow and work along with the instructor.”
– Trevor MacTaggart, Fortive
