“SANS courses are extremely valuable because of all the hands-on material and their connection to the real world.”
– Tor Nilsson, SecurityLink AB

“SANS Live Online delivers a great instructor/moderator team paired with technology that allows us to participate in this high-speed training remotely. It fosters interaction and participation, and is easy to follow and work along with the instructor.”
– Trevor MacTaggart, Fortive

“SANS is the premier learning and certification organization. I highly recommend SANS for those who are attempting certification. Whoever chooses a SANS class, upon completion, you will have taken away a solid understanding of the material (applicable to their work environment and not just theory) and be more prepared for the upcoming exam associated with that class.”
– Anastasio Stefos, Vision Federal Credit Union
